

Ombudsman for Protection of Women against Harassment at Workplace

Hon'ble Syed Pir Ali Shah was appointed as the first Provincial Ombudsman Sindh for "Protection against Harassment of Women at workplace," w.e.f. 6th of July 2012 for four years.

Previously, he has been a Judge of High Court where he was entrusted as Member Selection Committee for appointment of Civil Judges, Appellate Tribunal (one man) for Election Petitions arisen from different constituencies of Sindh, sent to Election Commission of Pakistan in respect of General Elections 2007-2008. In addition, he served as member of (two men) Tribunal for hearing appeals against acceptance or rejection of nomination papers for By-Elections scheduled in June 2008, Member Board of Governors Zia-ud-din Hospital and Member Syndicate/Senate Mehran University of Engineering & Technology, Jamshoro, Member, Service Tribunal for subordinate Judiciary up to 04.09.2008 and Monitoring Judge for Dadu and Naushero Feroze Judicial Districts up to 06-10-2008.